

OLIVER WIGHT

...leading business improvement specialists who educate, coach and mentor people to lead and sustain change on the journey to business excellence and outstanding business performance.

Employment Testing Services

The Oliver Wight organization provides human resource professionals and their organizations with full-service employment testing. Our employment testing services, which have been conducted for over 30 years, includes all employee levels, disciplines and job types. We also educate human resource professionals using proprietary testing technologies and systems.

features

- industry-leading tests to measure aptitude, ability, work strength, work style, personality style, values, motivational patterns, energy levels, and job fit
- candidate testing to fit individual to job specifications and work environment that is objective, legal, and web-based
- fast, convenient, low-cost, and paperless results
- consultation and decision support available at no extra charge

benefits

- facilitates more informed, objective hiring decisions
- enables the hiring of better qualified, more productive employees
- matches employee strengths to the specific job requirements
- reduces employee turnover and associated employee costs
- identifies poor performers and problem employees
- assembles high-performance teams
- protects against law suits and related legal costs
- helps new employees succeed and meet challenges
- generates same-day results, in most cases
- provides full interpretation and decision support contact Shirley Chambliss at Oliver Wight to begin your journey

1-800-258-3862
info@oliverwight.com www.oliverwight-america.com together we make a difference