

Is detail dysfunction paralyzing your leadership team?

Here's what the registrants of our upcoming webinar, "Keep Executives "Out of the Weeds" – How to Overcome the Mindset and Perils of Detail Dysfunction," told us in a recent survey:

Does your company operate these processes?

Which of the following statements best describes your company's decision-making process?

What percent of time do you estimate your company leaders focus on strategy?

We invite you to attend this webinar to learn how to keep executives "out of the weeds" and focused on the "big picture."
