

IBP Accelerator

Integrated Business Planning Accelerator (IBP-A)

IBP Software Designed to Accelerate your Implementation Results and Enable Better Executive Decisions

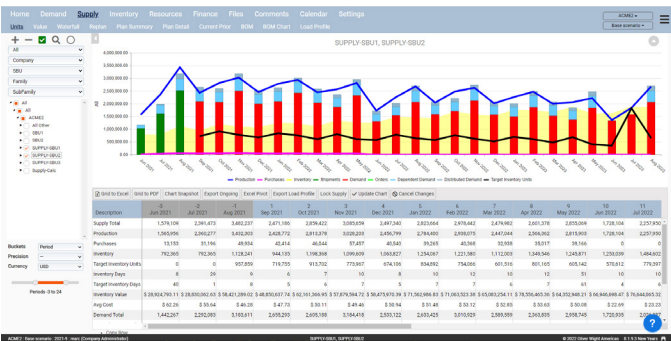

Speed up your success with the IBP Accelerator from Oliver Wight. IBP accelerator shortens time to results with best practice visualization needed to operate IBP efficiently and effectively to communicate issues and opportunities to management.

IBP Accelerator is designed to function in collaboration with your IBP process to achieve rapid implementation in as little as 45-90 days.

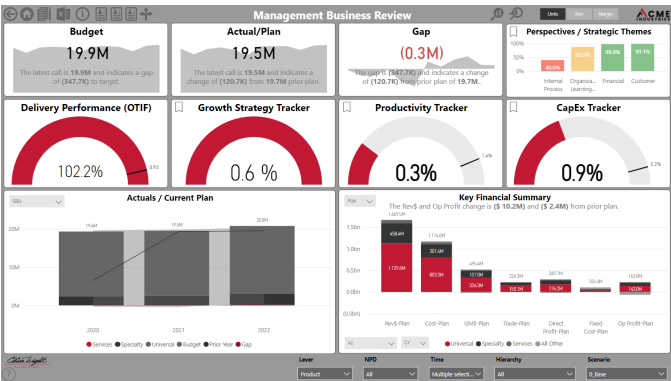

IBP Accelerator models your company's demand, resulting financials, inventory, supply plans, and capacity by leveraging best-practice aggregate planning and modeling techniques. The result gives a complete visual of all parts of the IBP process and the effect if one area changes.

IBP Accelerator is easily populated using Excel templates, and the Power BI-based visualization immediately replaces the need for PowerPoint.

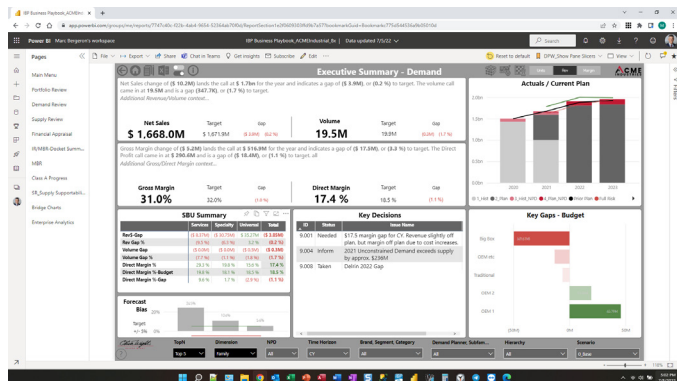

Easily illustrate the risks and opportunities to your business by creating “what-if” scenarios using IBP Accelerator. The users control the data and can create multiple scenarios without impacting other systems. Model your planning processes, knowing your information is protected within the IBP Accelerator tool.

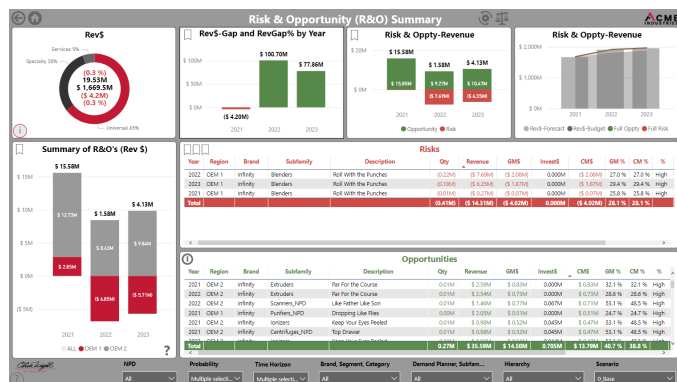

The result is more credible plans!

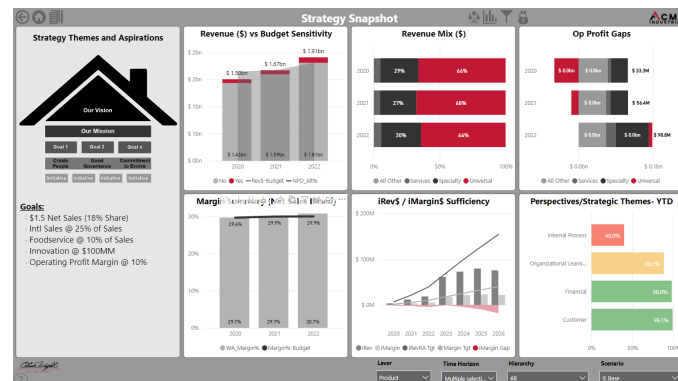

The solution is a fully web-enabled, secure platform designed to support best practices for IBP, quickly allowing the IBP process to be more efficient and effective than ever.

With best practices in mind and a practitioner's perspective, Oliver Wight created this tool 25 years ago. It focuses on the essential features to achieve impactful results.

Done well, IBP is a wonderful solution to Operationalize Strategy, infused with many embedded checks to strategy.

Oliver Wight will provide a demo of the IBP-A upon request.

Investment

The Integrated Business Planning Accelerator (IBP-A) is offered as a compliment to Oliver Wight's consulting services – we are not a software company. Discover how your company can integrate all areas of the business with financials to present a more comprehensive view for analysis, gap identification, and reconciliation.
